The Hoh Valley in the heart of Washington's Olympic Peninsula, is home to Gordon and Caroline Dillard, who have spent their lives in the valley and have watched the loss of the old growth forests around them. Their grandson, Dale Dillard, spends his summer vacation with them. During a near fatal logging accident, Dale encounters a mysterious and elusive creature, a creature so rarely seen, very few people believe in its existence. The incident triggers a chain of events involving the Dillard's, loggers and Native Americans that explores man's relationship with nature.
